The XXIXth edition of CONFERENG provides an international presentation and debate platform for advances in several areas of Engineering, bringing together academics, researchers and practitioners from around the world.

Papers presenting innovative technologies and methods, systems, tools, techniques and prototypes as well as review papers are equally encouraged.

We expect that the conference will result in new research and business partnerships and will propagate original ideas and concepts.

The conference will take place on 29-30 November 2024 and will be hosted by the Faculty of Engineering
